Proposed Library closure - Join, Order, Borrow

Below is a letter from Cathy Etherridge, a long-term supporter of Hatfield Peverel Library

*I have been told that our Library has a score of 48 points out of the 50 needed to retain a library facility which would be volunteer led. To score 50 points we could move from category 4 to Category 3. This is fantastic as some of those in our category are scoring low to mid 30s. As we are scoring well it might be a good idea to start a community group to carry on with the campaign and if necessary meet with representatives from ECC and also, in the event we are successful, form a group of volunteers. If you are interested please contact me on 07743 711384.

I have written to our County Councillors and the Councillor whose name appears on the strategy plan explaining why our village needs to keep a library facility. I have explained the threat of isolation and loneliness to many people, from young mums to the elderly and quoted an article in Psychology Today magazine on the detrimental effect of the above on people's overall health and wellbeing. Also that some cannot use the bus and would be denied library access, also the unreliable bus service is a factor.

I am told that writing letters to Essex County Council will help our cause. Please write to them and fill in the consultation form. Our performance will be monitored after the close of the consultation period on 20 February - only a few days left! so it's not too late to turn this around.

Please, please - join the library, order books, borrow books to help keep this fantastic service.

The Lost Words - A Spell Book

'Once upon a time, words began to vanish from the language of children'....opening words from Robert Macfarlane's book, illustrated with magical illustrations by Jackie Morris

Some years ago - more than three or four perhaps - I was listening to the radio and caught the end of a sad, unbelievable tale. Words that children use to describe the natural world around them - acorn, adder, kingfisher, willow, newt (o newt you are too cute) to name a few - disappearing from our word books, removed perhaps forever. Primroses were just coming out in our garden - primrose, was this to be a lost word?

I recalled some of the old names my grandmother used and one, when she saw a snail, was hoddenedid, (if you are a certain age like me you may remember it). I could have gone on line and found how that name came about instantly but it was more fun to get out our elderly Shorter Oxford English Dictionary (surely this was not the villain? In fact, we think it was the children's version of the Oxford English dictionary). No hoddenedid but hoddy-doddy from dodman, a small snail-shell.

Snailie, snailie, Shoot out your horns,
Tell us if 'twill be A bonnie day the morn

The story does not end here. In January we read that Robert Macfarlane's words had been set to music by a group of well-known traditional musicians. We went last week to Snape Maltings to hear the première of a tour of their work - it was an uplifting evening.

In the second half of the programme we became aware of a figure at the far corner of the stage - it was Jackie who, with her brush, was outlining the sinuous shape of two entwining otters. More technology meant we could see on screen her every brushstroke bringing these animals to life.

It's been said that this is a book that should be in every library, both school and public, in the country, and already indeed many schools have acquired copies. The words are lyrical and the paintings sublime.

The busiest time of any gardening year is nearly upon us

Allotment and growing news - Drew Price HPAA new site letting officer www.hpaa.org.uk

Hello and welcome to a new year and season of gardening. The busiest time of any gardening year is nearly upon us. Spring is definitely around the corner with buds appearing everywhere. So now is the best time to get a head start. In my last article, I emphasised creating and planning. Now to work.

The most important thing for our allotmentees or you in your garden is to get your seed beds in the best possible shape and ready to receive.

Top jobs moving into spring

- 1 Now is a great time to plan your vegetable crop rotations for the coming year. Enjoy the fresh air, on dry sunny days. Also put out food and water for hungry birds. Put up bird nesting boxes this month - it's the last chance before tits and other birds start looking for a suitable residence.

Digging and preparing

- 2 Enrich your soil before planting with your own compost, well-rotted horse manure or a multipurpose fertiliser that is dug in.
- 3 Disperse worm casts in lawns. Hoe and mulch weeds to gain control early.

Prune – yes early spring is the time

- 4 Prune apple and pear trees, shrubs and climbers, such as Wisteria, hardy evergreen hedges, and bush and climbing roses.
- 5 Prune raspberry canes - summer-fruiting to 6 inches, autumn-fruiting down to ground level.

Planting

- 6 Start forcing rhubarb. And this is your last chance to plant bare-rooted raspberries.
- 7 Chit early spuds in a cool, light place at 10°C for planting from mid-March onwards.
- 8 Sow sweet peas indoors in deep pots for endless flowers from July onwards.
- 9 Moss will start growing on lawns before the grass, so now is the time to kill it with ferrous sulphate. Mow the lawn on dry days (if needed).

In the spring, at the end of the day, you should smell like dirt. Margaret Atwood

Spring is nature's way of saying, 'Let's party!' Robin Williams

The Society's annual five-day holiday - 14 to 18 July - is to Wiltshire

We are heading back down south to Bradford-on-Avon based at the Leigh Park Country House and vineyard (sounds promising!). Gardens will include The Old Mill at Ramsbury, Windmill Cottage, Market Lavington, Laycock Abbey, village and garden incorporating the Fox Talbot photographic museum.

There are some places available: if you are interested give Clive Emberson a ring - 01245 381704, or email: cliveemberson@outlook.com He will be only to pleased to help you.

Slip ups galore - you can't get the staff!

A reply to Bob Mountfort (sorry Bob, should have remembered you are a 't' and not a 'd') regarding the birth of The Review in the December issue.

Thank you for your email with reminders of how it was and also who was involved. To fill in some details: the printers were Beeleigh Litho, now Kempco Ltd who took over around ten years ago, the same outfit but the people have come and gone although Steve Willis was in at the beginning. He's looking for his gold medal (which he - and his team - deserve).

The first Village Guide was printed in 1973: the aerial view on the cover came from an aerial survey of the UK in 1970 by Aerofilms Ltd, Borehamwood. Interestingly early covers remained the same until 1992 when a later survey photo was used. Catherine Voysey's introduction to this guide (she was chairman at the time) reads - 'The cover for this seventh edition of the Hatfield Peverel Guide is the new aerial photo taken in 1991. It replaces the one, taken 21 years ago, which has been used for all past editions. You will find it an interesting exercise to spot the differences'.

This lovely photograph was winner in the society's Autumn photographic competition for landscapes. Sorry, I have mislaid your name!

Older villagers note later editions show The Pines.

When time came for the 2006 edition - the last - it was decided there would be no advertisements. Jubilation and sighs of relief from those who, in all weathers, had previously spent many hours knocking on doors, selling space and collecting information.

Now at the flick of a button we can get all the information we want - and don't want!

RIP Hatfield Peverel Guide!

Such is life

Without starting you can arrive nowhere

Blessed is he that expects nothing, for he shall never be disappointed

Alan, you've done a great job!

The very long serving and excellent litter collector for Nounsley, Alan Porter, has recently retired. We should like to express our gratitude to him for helping to keep this area of the village so neat and tidy. We wish you all the best, Alan.

Now is perhaps an appropriate time for us to express appreciation to parish litter collectors, both past and present. They go about their duties quietly and unobtrusively, but their regular and extremely necessary work makes our village a much more pleasant environment for everyone. We thank them all.

Terry and Thelma Bard.

NDP report February 2019

The anticipated further six week consultation that was due to commence in January was postponed due to the publication of new Basic Conditions on the 28th December 2018.

In early January the NDP group met with their consultant, Braintree District Council and Place Services to discuss the way forward in order that the examination may progress. On the advice of the Examiner, it was agreed to update the Habitat Regulation Assessment (HRA), and Strategic Environmental Assessment (SEA) Screening Report, and also the Basic Conditions Statement.

A new HRA/SEA Screening Report, undertaken by Place Services, was sent to the Statutory Consultees, all of whom have now commented enabling a six week public consultation to take place on the amended version of the Plan which includes the three focused changes to Policies FI1 Transport and Access (page 47), HO1 Design of New Developments (page 57) and HO6 Allocation of the former Arla site (page 63) consulted on last May/June. A detailed report on why changes have been made will accompany the Plan along with the new HRA/SEA Screening Report and new Basic Conditions Statement. The consultation commenced on Monday 11 February ending on Monday 25 March. The consultation documents can be found on BDC's consultation portal:

braintree.limehouse.co.uk/portal/

Hard copies will be in the Library for viewing, or online at the Parish Council's website:

www.essexinfo.net/hatfieldpeverel/the-neighbourhood-development/

If you wish to be kept informed of progress for the NDP then please email:

hatfieldpeverelplan@gmail.com requesting your details are added to the contacts database. If you gave this permission previously, you will need to do so again due to the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) which came into force last year. The contact information you supply will be used solely to keep you informed about the progression of the NDP.

On a bright and crisp morning Parish Council Chairman, Mark Weale, presented this year's Chairman's Allowance to Trevor Lenoir and Paul Thorogood of Hatfield Peverel Cricket Club. Councillor Weale nominated HPCC in recognition of their community engagement through the events they held last year in 2018. Congratulations!

Bowls Club celebrates...

Rita Thomson - Bowls Captain, 01245 380038

The Christmas party in December was a great evening. Winners of the games were Sandra Yolfrey and Ann Nicholls.

The New Year started with the Chrissie Hatfield Plate competition, was won by Steve Spooner. The triples competition for the Trevor Matthams Cup was won by Steve Barry, Dennis Partridge and Val Hudgell and the Jim Cowell Triples was won by Derek Aspinell, Dennis Partridge and Ray Kirby. In the second playing for the Chrissie Harris Memorial Cup Steve Barry was the winner.

Having recovered ourselves, the Tuesday League is going well and in the Essex League we won the away match against Courage. Our home match against Sanquine Reds resulted in another win. We are now in second spot!

On behalf of the players at the Bowling Club, a happy new year to you all.

Mary Sheila Coffin 1933 - 2018

Many of you may have heard the sad news that Mary Coffin passed away on 17 December, 2018. She will be remembered by many who live in the village.

Mary moved to Hatfield Peverel in 1960 with her husband John where she launched herself into village life. She was an active member of the Hatfield Peverel WI and the church, teaching at the Sunday school with Arthur Wagstaff. Together with her friend Pam, she set up the Hatfield Peverel Folk Dance Club. First run in the school canteen, with records played on a redundant record player, the club has gone from strength to strength and continues to thrive. Some of you may remember the rehearsals for WI concerts held at Mary's house, or the ceilidhs she organised to raise funds for the scout hut and school swimming pool.

In 1964 she became a teacher at St Andrews, alongside Joyce Hancock, in the Infant School. She was described as 'loving, firm but fair'. Mary and John's three children were all born during their time in Hatfield Peverel and also attended St Andrews. The family left the village in 1970 and Mary kept in close touch with friends she had made. She welcomed opportunities to visit friends, support events, and to revisit her favourite places - a walk across Stonepath Meadow fishing in the ford, a walk along the river at the bottom of Crabb's Hill. Mary was a keen naturalist, and set up Young Ornithologist Clubs in schools she taught in after leaving St Andrews. She was also a keen volunteer for Essex Naturalist Trust, and could be found volunteering in the shop or chopping down shrub at Fingringhoe Wick in the eighties and nineties.

Mary will be remembered as a great friend, a generous and active member of the communities she lived in, first at Hatfield Peverel and then elsewhere. She lived a good life and faced difficulties with a quiet strength gained through faith and a determination not to make a fuss. Mary had left a note which ended... 'Please be happy...remember love is the most important thing in life...sharing, caring and laughter'

Christmas Card winner

Hatfield Peverel St
Andrew's Junior School

Our pupil, Jasmine (Base 6) won the Christmas Card constituency competition for schools. Jasmine's card design (illustrated here) will have been posted out to many places in the UK and across the world. Congratulations, Jasmine.

We had a good time in the lead-up to Christmas, our events were successful and appreciated by parents and pupils alike. Thanks to the JSA who paid for the cost of the coaches, the whole school was delighted to be able to travel to the Mercury Theatre, Colchester to enjoy the Pantomime, 'Jack and the Beanstalk'. Everyone had a fabulous time - ('Oh yes, they did!').

We were very pleased with the efforts of our Junior School Association who raised over £4,000 at the Christmas Bazaar. Following the retiring offering from our Year 3-4 Production, the school has been able to send £213 to 'Stand Up To Cancer' and in addition our Base 5 pupil, Emilie, raised a wonderful £84 for the same charity selling 'Kemi' bracelets to pupils which she had made herself. Thank you to everyone, and well done Emilie for your amazing effort. Keep an eye out for future JSA events - every penny raised is put back into the school to benefit all the children.

We have trips coming up this Spring Term. Year 3 will enjoy a 'Caveman Day' at Danbury Park - hope for a warm, dry Spring day! Year 5 will visit BAPS (Bochasanwasi Akshar Purushottam Sanstha) Shri Swaminarayan Mandir, the large Hindu Temple in Neasden, London, Year 4 will study the Romans at Colchester Castle and Year 6 will experience Harry Potter World.

We are sure they will have a great experience at their visits. As ever, thank you to Jackie, one of the Parish Review Editors, who keeps us on our toes and tries her best to make sure that we don't miss the deadlines!

Albeit a little late, may we wish everyone in the Hatfield Peverel community a very Happy New Year 2019.

Exit Library Left?

*The Council's closing the Library
It will happen some day soon
Cut backs have to happen
They tell us with great gloom*

*The books will go completely
Nothing useful will be read
Flickering screens will dominate
Everything written and said*

*No more rhyme times for baby
And helping others through the door
No reference books and craft groups
And choosing from titles galore*

*There'll be the usual consultation
Your opinion is being sought
But you can guess the likely outcome
When the incoming finance is nought*

*So, value the village library
Enjoy it's waning days
Getting eaten up by Google
Is more than a passing phase*

Away with Christmas - welcome to Thames sailing barges and lunch at The Wheatsheaf

Hadfelda WI - Marel Elliston

Christmas seems a long time ago and as Hadfelda WI had no meeting in December, the Christmas party was held in November. Members were greeted with wine or a soft drink, each table had a bowl of nibbles and was decorated with holly and ivy, all designed to put everyone in the Christmas spirit!

Our speaker, Ian Davidson, gave an amusing talk entitled 'Christmas Fun', and it was exactly that. He kept us entertained with various anecdotes and stories about his experiences over Christmas - from choosing and buying presents, to selecting and purchasing the right amount of food, often with hilarious results. Everyone then enjoyed a lovely supper supplied by the members, during which they got their 'little grey cells' working trying to complete a quiz compiled by Theresa.

January 2019 was not only our first meeting of the New Year, but also the first when we met in the afternoon rather than the evening. We were delighted to welcome five visitors who, we hope, will become full members. What a brilliant start to the New Year!

David Gibson gave an entertaining and informative talk about Thames sailing barges - living close to Maldon the members are familiar with these lovely old ships, which made the talk even more interesting. What many of us didn't know was that many of the barges were involved in the evacuation at Dunkirk and a number never returned. Without the time and effort put in by volunteers to keep these lovely ships in good condition, they'd be lost forever.

Members were reminded about the lunch in February at The Wheatsheaf and to put their names on the list for the County Annual Meeting in Colchester where the main speaker is the Rev Richard Coles who was a contestant in 'Strictly Come Dancing' and can regularly be heard on BBC Radio 4.

At our February meeting Peter Lazell's talk is 'On the Beat when Policemen had Feet'. The competition is your prettiest cup and saucer or mug.

We meet on the fourth Wednesday of the month; our next meeting is 27 February, 2pm - 4pm in St Andrew's Church Hall. Visitors - men and women - are very welcome and the cost is £5 including tea/coffee and biscuits.

Young Jamie lights up for Christmas!

Christmas in the Park

The Community events committee has run 'Christmas in the Park' annually for the last three years. Last year was rather disrupted by snow, but this year was good bright winter weather. At dusk, everyone assembled in the village hall and was then led outside by a traditional Scottish piper to gather around the Christmas tree. There was a blessing by the Vicar and then a key member of the community turned on the tree lights to cheers from the gathered festive crowd.

This year events committee member, and Parish Council Chairman, Mark Weale asked young Jamie Franks to turn on the lights: the committee knew Jamie loves Christmas and loves lights because of his deafness and the sensory side of it. They said we could raise money and awareness for the National Deaf Children's Society at the same time.

"Jamie was born deaf", his mum Kimmy Jones explains. "He has sensineural bilateral profound hearing loss, which means he had no hearing in either ears due to a problem with their cochleas so he was born deaf. But at 14 months old he had a cochlea implant operation and can now hear at normal speech levels and is slowly catching up with his speech and communication."

Before the switch on Jamie just kept saying Merry Christmas and signing it to everyone, and saying "lights" and "Mark". His communication is a bit delayed due to his deafness. During the event he was very excited and loved all the attention and afterwards just wanted to look at the pretty lights and was so happy.

*A happy Jamie Franks with Mum Kimmi and Dad Lee.

News from St Andrews

Christmas seems a long way past and the New Year feels like an extension of the old year. For the Church, the New Year began with Advent Sunday, 2 December 2018. Christmas at St Andrews went off with a swing, with Carol Songs of Praise, the Christmas coffee morning, a Messy Nativity (thanks John and Anna and helpers) event to which more than 50 people of all ages came along; and the services on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. We should not forget the School Carol Services and the Junior School Christmas play.

We are now in the Epiphany season, where the readings concentrate for the most part on the revelation of Christ to the world, both Jews and Gentiles (non-Jews). Lent is almost as late as it can be; Ash Wednesday being on 6 March. Our Lent group this year will look at the Gospel of Luke, the basis for this year's readings.

Temporary changes to Sunday services

As some of you will know, the Church hall, kitchen and toilets are being refurbished. This has been in the pipeline for a long time, and we finally received the go ahead and start date is Monday 18 February to Friday 8 March. We won't really be in business until later the following week. Meanwhile, as there will be no facilities and no heating, all activities in the Church hall and Church have been cancelled or re-arranged.

Church services on these dates - 24 February, 3 March, 19 March, 17 March will be held as below

10.15am Service will be held in the Junior School hall - no evening service

8am Communion Service will be held in the Vicarage - no evening service

Saturday 2 March - Coffee morning cancelled

Sunday 31 March - Mothering Sunday a special service at 10.15am. It seems a long way ahead but time does fly! Details to follow; watch for posters.

Christmas readings and carols

Mothers Union - Jean Ashby

At our annual members meeting Fr Stephen took charge of the CD player for our carol favourites - if the carol wasn't on it, we sang unaccompanied!. We had an enjoyable time and finished with tea and Ann's delicious mince pies.

Tuesday 8 January 2019

We began New Year with our communion service conducted by Fr. Stephen, who reminded us that, at this season of Epiphany (Manifestation), we celebrate the manifestation by God of himself to the world in Jesus. The Magi offered Jesus royal gifts and worship. Not everyone is happy with our Jesus. Herod saw him as a threat to his power and authority and was willing to kill for it. Christians are challenged to be part of God's manifestation, revealing the love of God to the world by living out the example of Jesus in our own lives. God has a wider embrace than us, there is hope for us all.

We followed the service with our AGM as best we could. We are a small group and some members were unable to be there. We have no formal leader. Pat retired at the grand age of 92, suffering from poor health. We owe her a great debt of gratitude for her years of service. Thank you Pat.

Meanwhile Andrea, Ann and Elizabeth soldier on as our committee. Treasurer Andrea presented the financial statement for 2018 - we have a total of £617.74 in our accounts. She compiled an account of all MU meetings held during 2018 which was read out by Elizabeth as Andrea is visiting relatives in Australia.

The committee has been working out a programme of speakers for 2019. On 5 February we had a good turnout of members and friends (17plus) when Mr Roger Smith gave an interesting talk about the Essex and Herts Air Ambulance.

News from All Saints, Ulting

On Sunday 1 December All Saints celebrated Charles Cope becoming a Reader for the Parish of Hatfield Peverel and Ulting. Charles delivered the Sermon for Advent Sunday, beginning with the traditional Burmese greeting for Advent - Sweet December. He talked not only about the Advent of Christ but how Christians everywhere should be prepared for His Second Coming. The Service was followed by refreshments including a special cake for Charles (in action with Rev Derek in the photograph!) which was shared among those in the congregation.

The pathway leading to the Church porch was lined with candlelit lanterns as a welcome to the Carols by Candlelight Service just as the sun was setting on Sunday 8 December. The church was filled with candles which provided the right atmosphere for the large and enthusiastic congregation. Carols were led by the Hadfelda Singers who also sang Christmas songs. As well as Bible readings, Christmas poems were included and to mark the 100 years anniversary of the First World War Armistice, Charles Cope and Geoff Smith read out the words of two soldiers who witnessed the 'Christmas truce' from the trenches. These poignant words were followed by singing the carol Silent Night. There followed a brisk trade in teas, coffees and home-made mince pies and cakes.

Everyone has been sad to hear the news of the passing of Jim Page. Jim had been an unwavering member of the congregation at St. Andrews and All Saints for many years until illness prevented him attending on a regular basis. He channelled his knowledge of history and his skill for research into finding out as much as he could about All Saints Church but it was not just the cold facts that fascinated him.

His fondness for the Church and its special features was evident in the passion with which he always spoke about it, and it was this passion which he was keen to share with everyone. He could always be relied upon to be available at the Open Days at the Church and to give talks there to organisations when they visited. His research is evident in the current leaflet detailing the features and history of All Saints, a leaflet which he wrote, designed and produced. His wisdom and good humour will be greatly missed.

Prayers and blessings. Rev Derek Clark

Methodist Church

Once again we happily welcomed our village Rainbow, Brownies and Guides with their families to join us for our annual carol service. The Church looked pretty bathed in the light of hundreds of candles. A big thank you to Gill Songer who led our service and to our music group of Nathan on piano, Eddie playing guitar and Jane leading our singing - well known carols such as 'Come and join the celebration' but also introducing a new tune for 'Away in a manger' and a newer carol 'Beneath the paper wrapping'

Beneath the paper wrappings, there's an open stable door. Beneath the fir tree trappings, there's a welcome and there's more. Beyond the tinsel fairy is a presence that's divine, there's a child to change the future, turning water into wine.

The three groups took a large part of the service with Rainbows singing and signing for us, Away in a Manger and We wish you a merry Christmas. The Brownies gave us the story of 10 Little Christmas Trees travelling to different places but losing a tree each time. The Guides joined in with a Bible reading telling of the birth of Christ. Gill helped us to make paper candles which illustrated her telling of the Nativity story. Afterwards we enjoyed tea and cakes which were well deserved. Thank you to all the groups for joining in our service and making it such a happy occasion. A great afternoon, enjoyed by all.

Christmas at Reality Church

Our special Christmas celebration for Reality Church was held on 23 December commencing with a breakfast for all our friends – tables were decorated, continental breakfast served and eggs and bacon cooked. After breakfast we were entertained in our service with a duo of puppets which gave a rocking rendition of Joy to the World. With more music from our regular singers we enjoyed singing Christmas carols and Ria, who led our service, reminded us of the wonder of the Christmas story from St Luke's Gospel.

John Clemo led our final Reality service of 2018 with us all taking part by providing the sound effects for the story of the Nativity from the Innkeeper's point of view. In this version he was not amused by having to open up his home to Mary and Joseph – lots of banging up and down stairs – but was finally overcome by the miracle and significance of the birth of the baby Jesus. This was not our final service of the year as we joined our friends at St Andrews to celebrate communion later that morning.

A man of many talents - and a love for life

Jim had another life before we in Hatfield Peverel got to know and love him - his enthusiasm for everything and everybody, his love of the countryside, walking, cycling, - map reading was a particular passion which stood him in good stead in his career. In his early years he sang in the choir until his voice broke when he took up bell ringing which remained a lifelong passion. His life story reads like an exciting travelogue, filled with friends and colleagues, dogs and family.

His work life included City Surveyor in Gainsborough, town planning in Pontypridd. (Hence his choice of hymns for his memorial service. 'Guide me O thou great redeemer' the tune of which, Cym Rhondda, was written in Pontypridd where he lived, 'Calon Lan', 'Love divine all loves excelling' to the tune Blaenwern.) Once he cycled from there to Lincoln – serious long distance cycling! It was here he surveyed the route of the 'head of the valleys' road to prove it could be built.

In 1947 he met Mary Hickson in Hertfordshire's newly created planning department - they married in Hatfield in 1950. They later had three daughters.

Nearer home, in 1971 he moved into tertiary education as a lecturer at Chelmsford Polytechnic where he remained until he retired. He was in his element teaching as he had an encyclopaedic memory of town history and could give detailed history of many towns. You could not visit a town without him filling you in with a detailed guide of its history. In later years he took parties for town walks explaining what they could see.

He and Mary got involved in the Farleigh Hospice in its early days. And raised over £50,000 by running a coin exchange.

Retirement in 1983 and his long and happy life with Mary at Gleneagles Way began. They lived in this home the longest. They had many friends and were involved in local activities, in particular St Andrews and Ulting churches (see page 13). In later years he was a member of the Scouts management committee.

He lectured for the WEA all over Essex and was a member of the Hatfield Peverel group - where he also lectured. His extensive knowledge amazed us.

Jim was a compulsive planner, he was ever adapting the house here for Mary and his needs so he could continue independent living. He researched many projects, from wartime air crashes to the analysis of East Anglian carters, tithe maps of this parish. He always had a research project on the go!

After Mary died his daughter Sue came to live with him along with her dog, Orca, so he had companionship in later years.

A family man, in his 80s he would be on his knees playing with his great grandchildren's train set. There were always toys in the lounge at Gleneagles Way for any visiting child to play with. His love of bell ringing stayed with him and at 90 he returned to ring the bells at Willingham.

He remained very active up to a year ago and was able to go out for short trips. He died peacefully in his sleep at home on 28 December, 2018.

Global village on books

The BOOK is a revolutionary breakthrough in technology; no wire, no batteries, nothing to be connected or switched on. It is so easy to use even a child can operate it. Just lift its cover. Compact and portable, it can be used anywhere, yet it is powerful enough to hold as much information as a CD-ROM. Each BOOK is constructed of sequentially numbered sheets of paper (recyclable) each capable of holding thousands of bits of information. The BOOK never crashes and never needs re-booting - need I say more?

Festive food and drink, January geniuses and majestic moments in February!

Pevel Wine Club – Vee Green, Secretary (01245 355723)
www.pevelwineclub.co.uk email pevelwineclub@hotmail.co.uk

As the Gremlins attacked the Wine Club report for December 2018 and replaced it with the report for December 2017, there is quite a lot to cover! The AGM took place in the village hall on 10 October, with Chairman Graham Bushby, Treasurer Linda Fisher and Committee member Henryk Podlesny all safely re-elected. We were also delighted to welcome two new volunteers to the committee – Nick and Jill Shakespear, whom we are sure will bring forward lots of new ideas and suggestions for the Club.

November's meeting was a much jollier affair, the theme being What's Good for Christmas? Six wines were tasted, suggested to accompany canapés, a seafood starter, turkey, beef, cheese and pudding, each with appropriate pick-ups to get us thinking in festive mode. The six presenters also suggested wines and food which DIDN'T go well together, and possible alternatives for those who only drank white or red wine. We were surprised to learn that one particularly murderous marriage of wine and food is a match we make all the time at special occasions – pairing a Brut champagne or sparkling wine with a very sweet iced wedding or Christmas cake! The dryness of the wine and the sugariness of the icing completely clash with each other! The suggestion was either to drink a sweet Asti Spumante, perfect with all sweet puddings and cakes, or to drink the Brut champagne before tackling the cake! The wine of the evening was generally agreed to be a very pleasant Porta 6 Portuguese red wine from Majestic, excellent with beef and cheese at a price that wouldn't break the bank!

In December, we enjoyed the Club's annual Christmas Party in the village hall, tucking into a 4-course supper provided by members and committee before dancing the night away once more to the live music of local star Ian Jordan – all for the very modest cost of £5 for members and £10 for visitors. January brought the delights of a brand-new programme for 2019, starting with the now traditional intra-club quiz in the capable hands of question master Graham Bushby. There was a good turnout of members and guests, and the keenly-fought contest ended up being won by Ann and John Riddleston, Dave and Marian Belshaw and their brainy guests. Well done!

We are now eagerly looking forward to our next meeting on 13 February in the village hall, when we shall be welcoming a speaker from Majestic introducing a selection of white and red wines from the Majestic Loves range, an appropriate topic so close to Valentine's Day. If you'd like to join us at any time for a light-hearted and inexpensive evening out, you would be very welcome, but please give Vee a ring beforehand to confirm attendance (and to ensure we have enough of everything to eat and drink!) on 01245 355723, or Graham on 01245 380472. Just have a look to see the date and topic for each month's meeting on our website at www.pevelwineclub.co.uk/ The Club meets normally on the second Wednesday of the month at 8pm in the village hall, but with some exceptions (including Christmas, which is the third Wednesday), so that it is always worth phoning first, especially during the summer months.

More gremlines - apologies to Vee Green, our reliable and on-time Wine Club correspondent for printing her 2017 report instead of 2018 in the Christmas Review. And Nicky Shelley for acknowledging her lovely field of poppies and its painters to Hatfield Pevel Nursery. instead of Nickey's Childminding.

New Year's Day Walk with a purpose

Ken Earney

The words more or less flowed for version 1 of this item, but we work offline in Windows XP for the Review then switch to the other drive to go online in Windows 7. I'd had to check emails for something or other and forgot to save before switching. Disaster - when we returned to continue work on another item, this one had vanished, so I'm now attempting to recreate the original literary masterpiece!

The main aim in choosing the route this year was to include Stonepath Meadow, still under threat of development pending a decision by the Secretary of State for Housing, Communities and Local Government. Can't imagine what's taking him so long, can you? So after gathering at the Scout and Guide HQ, about seventeen of us (and three dogs) set off along Church Road and into the meadow. A short stop to brief those who didn't already know about the saga, and a photo-op (see above, thanks Andy) we continued along Stonepath (stones now all but invisible) then onto the footpath under the A12 and beside the Ter (FP34), under the railway viaduct and up the newly diverted section beside the railway embankment to Terling Hall Road.

A brief stop for another couple of photos and a little bit of road walking along Crix Lane to reach the path by field edge and woods - Spixman's Gardens, Brewhouse, Bishop's and Long Woods - to Crabb's Hill (FP13). We had third short stretch of road before the riverside path beside the Ter (FP49), then returning to our starting point via FP8, across Sportsmans Lane, and FP7.

The weather was fine and sunny with a gentle breeze. Unfortunately, no mince pies and mulled wine to finish - Catherine would have been disappointed with us!

Dates for Hatfield Peveler Walkers this year are 28 February, 28 March, 25 April, 30 May, 27 June, 25 July, 29 August, 26 September, 31 October, 28 November, 19 December.

2018 Poppy appeal - £6003.84

Peter Archer, Poppy Appeal organizer

Our best-ever collection - many people and organisations in the village helped to raise this large amount. Special thanks to those who helped to distribute and collect in the trays and boxes, without your assistance the above would not have been possible.

A big thank you also to all who collected, especially door to door - in many cases residents look forward to seeing the yearly 'Poppy person'. We even had an increase in our morning collections at the station!. So a greater thank you to those who donated.

And thank you too Peter, and those who help you, for a job well done. Don't retire just yet.
